How Congress Can Partner with the States on a Federal Balanced Budget Amendment

By Nick Dranias

Introduction

49 states have balanced budget or debt limit requirements in their constitutions, statutes or case law. This policy looks especially prescient today, with Greece and Puerto Rico on the edge of economic collapse due to poor fiscal controls and excessive borrowing. Unfortunately, efforts to advance a federal Balanced Budget Amendment have been focused on urging Congress to deploy its direct amendment proposal power under Article V of the U.S. Constitution, which the proposal of amendments with the support of two-thirds of each House. The problem is that Congress has never reached the necessary threshold with any of its proposed Balanced Budget Amendments. But that is not a reason to give up when it comes to championing a federal Balanced Budget Amendment. There is another way. Congress can partner with the states on the issue. Specifically, Congress could pass a concurrent resolution, such as H.Con.Res. 26 (see Appendix), to set in motion an interstate compact to advance and ratify a federal Balanced Budget Amendment, such as the Compact for a Balanced Budget.

Duncan Chair for Constitutional Government and directed the Joseph and Dorothy Donnelly Moller Center for Constitutional Government. Dranias led the Goldwater Institute's successful challenge to Arizona's system of government campaign financing to the U.S. Supreme Court.

How to Partner with the States

By passing H.Con.Res. 26, Congress would yield to the states' leadership in advancing a federal Balanced Budget Amendment through the Compact for a Balanced Budget. The Compact for a Balanced Budget is an interstate agreement currently existing among Alaska, Georgia, Mississippi and North Dakota. The Compact advances and ratifies a federal Balanced Budget Amendment in one bill — a single legislative action — passed by 38 state legislatures. It is able to advance a federal Balanced Budget Amendment because it deploys the power to organize a convention for proposing amendments under Article V of the U.S. Constitution. The Compact commits its member states to the entire constitutional amendment process in advance, so that the proposal of a specific, pre-drafted federal Balanced Budget Amendment is voted up or down within 24 hours at the convention it organizes. The use of a formal agreement to define and deploy the convention mode of proposing amendments ensures that this otherwise untested process enjoys the benefit of centuries of case law enforcing interstate compacts.

Using conditional enactments to ensure that it only goes “live” at the right time, H.Con.Res. 26 simultaneously calls the Article V convention contemplated by the Compact (if and when at least three-fourths of the states join the Compact) and selects legislative ratification of the Compact's contemplated federal Balanced Budget Amendment (if and when the amendment is proposed by the Compact-organized convention).

17 Upon the effective date of this title, be it resolved

20 proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the 23 shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the 24 Constitution when ratified by the legislatures of three-

1 fourths of the several States within seven years after the 2 date of its submission for ratification:

3 “ARTICLE —

4 “SECTION 1. Total outlays of the Government of the 5 United States shall not exceed total receipts of the Gov-
6 ernment of the United States at any point in time unless 7 the excess of outlays over receipts is financed exclusively
8 by debt issued in strict conformity with this article.

9 “SECTION 2. Outstanding debt shall not exceed au-
10 thorized debt, which initially shall be an amount equal to 11 105 percent of the outstanding debt on the effective date
12 of this article. Authorized debt shall not be increased 13 above its aforesaid initial amount unless such increase is 14 first approved by the legislatures of the several States as 15 provided in section 3.

16 “SECTION 3. From time to time, Congress may in-17 crease authorized debt to an amount in excess of its initial 18 amount set by section 2 only if it first publicly refers to 19 the legislatures of the several States an unconditional, sin-
20 gle subject measure proposing the amount of such in-
21 crease, in such form as provided by law, and the measure
22 is thereafter publicly and unconditionally approved by a
23 simple majority of the legislatures of the several States,
24 in such form as provided respectively by State law; pro-
25 vided that no inducement requiring an expenditure or tax

1 levy shall be demanded, offered or accepted as a quid pro
2 quo for such approval. If such approval is not obtained
3 within 60 calendar days after referral then the measure
4 shall be deemed disapproved and the authorized debt shall 5 thereby remain unchanged.

6       “SECTION 4. Whenever the outstanding debt exceeds 7 98 percent of the debt limit set by section 2, the President
8 shall enforce said limit by publicly designating specific ex-
9 penditures for impoundment in an amount sufficient to 10 ensure outstanding debt shall not exceed the authorized
11 debt. Said impoundment shall become effective 30 days
12 thereafter, unless Congress first designates an alternate
13 impoundment of the same or greater amount by concur-
14 rent resolution, which shall become immediately effective.
15 The failure of the President to designate or enforce the 16 required impoundment is an impeachable misdemeanor.
17 Any purported issuance or incurrence of any debt in excess
18 of the debt limit set by section 2 is void.

19       “SECTION 5. No bill that provides for a new or in-
20 creased general revenue tax shall become law unless ap-
21 proved by a two-thirds roll call vote of the whole number
22 of each House of Congress. However, this requirement
23 shall not apply to any bill that provides for a new end
24 user sales tax which would completely replace every exist-
25 ing income tax levied by the Government of the United

1 States; or for the reduction or elimination of an exemp-
2 tion, deduction, or credit allowed under an existing general
3 revenue tax.

4 “SECTION 6. For purposes of this article, ‘debt’
5 means any obligation backed by the full faith and credit
6 of the Government of the United States; ‘outstanding
7 debt’ means all debt held in any account and by any entity
8 at a given point in time; ‘authorized debt’ means the max-
9 imum total amount of debt that may be lawfully issued
10 and outstanding at any single point in time under this 11 article; ‘total outlays of the Government of the United 12 States’ means all expenditures of the Government of the 13 United States from any source; ‘total receipts of the Gov-
14 ernment of the United States’ means all tax receipts and 15 other income of the Government of the United States, ex-
16 cluding proceeds from its issuance or incurrence of debt
17 or any type of liability; ‘impoundment’ means a proposal
18 not to spend all or part of a sum of money appropriated
19 by Congress; and ‘general revenue tax’ means any income
20 tax, sales tax, or value-added tax levied by the Government
21 of the United States excluding imposts and duties.

22 “SECTION 7. This article is immediately operative
23 upon ratification, self-enforcing, and Congress may enact 24 conforming legislation to facilitate enforcement.”.
